

Matt is the President Braintree Properties. He has been in the construction and real estate industry for over 20 years. In his role he manages and oversees the development and construction of projects in a variety of different real estate sectors: education, hospitality, multi-family and self-storage. In addition, Matt has extensive experience in government real estate. From 2009-2015, he led the development of a 360,000 square foot Southwest Region Headquarters for the Federal Aviation Administration in Fort Worth, TX. He also led many high-level construction projects for the Department of Justice throughout the southwest. Matt has developed over 5 million square feet of commercial real estate.

Matt earned an M.P.A. from the University of North Texas and a B.S. in Accounting from the Marriot School of Business, Brigham Young University. When not in the office, Matt can be found spending time with his wife and three children and staying active in the community. He currently serves as a member of the Fort Worth Planning Commission. He also enjoys college football as well as woodworking in milling raw timber and creating tables and furniture.
